

Hello there!

Due to the recent government guidance regarding the Corona Virus, I would like to offer some free help, especially if you are in a high risk group.

I work for a web company, and can help you use the internet to do all sorts of things which would save you going out.

For example you could get your shopping or prescriptions delivered to your home, I could help you with get news updates on your computer or phone, or help you get more connected with the outside world through social media.
